Honeybee: Lessons from an Accidental Beekeeper is a great beginner/"I'm interested in honey/bees books. I loved the tidbits of almost everything interesting about bees and honey. Marchese is a woman who was workign the regular job traveling to China several times during the year and running out of steam. "Marina Marchese's Honeybee: Lesson from an Accidental Beekeeper is a charming and informative passage to the hive from the beginning to end. Especially helpful are the appendices to guide novice and experienced beekeepers in honey varietals, pairings, and labels. Honeybee: Lessons from an Accidental Beekeeper. Marina Marchese fell in love with bees during a tour of a neighbor's honeybee hives. She quit her job, acquired her own bees, built her own hives, harvested honey, earned a certificate in apitherapy, studied wine tasting in order to transfer those skills to honey tasting,...
